PROJECT OVERVIEW

Mascons team was wanted to have more sales and due to high competition and economy changes they also wanted to have some marketing campaigns to promote their brand awareness to the people through digital platform. They wanted to have a brand new website to promote their new images and projects to attract new customers (both buyers and sellers). They also offer their clients extra services that would help them sell their properties.

They get their majority of their new leads from referrals and while they were happy with this they also wanted to maximize their online presence to start attracting prospects. This made them to approach KSoft team.
